PRICE TWO CENTS

NEAR-NEWS AND CHATTER FOR SATURDAY NIGHT

To the lady first correctly guessing the identity of the person of whom the following is a character sketch, and bringing a copy of this paper to the Tribune office, a cash prize of $1.00 will be given. The subject of the sketch is a prominent citizen of La Crosse. After winning one prize, a contestant will not be eligible to again compete for a period of three months.

Miss Dorothy Schult, 508 Main Street, was the winner of last week's "Guess Who's Here" contest, the subject of the sketch being Larry Scherhart.

GUESS WHO'S HERE

Of all the jolly fellows, none is jollier than he; none is funnier, none is fairer, none so apt at repartee. He is there to land a counter for every quip you shoot, and you get it in the plexus, with an upper-cut to boot. When it comes to making speeches, Thermoel is at the post, standing still or going backward, and no man can drink a toast with the unctious and the relish and the sentiment he brings to the functions where he's always doing things and saying things. He can talk a string of billiards while you're chalking up your cue; he can keep them on the alley 'till the evening is half through. He can't sing, but he'll attempt it if you give him half a chance; he's "exalted," you could tell it in the dark at half a glance. He's the big noise in the pow-wow, with the ladies he's a scream. He's an engine coaled for action, he's a boiler bulged with steam. When a battle's worth while winning, but you think it can't be won, while you're grieving Billy's doing, while you're doubting, it is done. When you raise your left hand sadly, drinking to the empty chair to the absent—you don't mean him, for the cuss is always there. With a cheery smile and cackle, with the bon mot and the pun, he is near us, glad to cheer us with the ripple of his fun. For competing with the sunshine, comes his happy, healthy grin (leaving gaping acres open 'twixt his upper lip and chin), routing sorrow, stilling anger, lifting friends in joyous flight to the fellowship exalting where good will is a delight. Oh, he's sure some lordly fellow, and I'm grieved to tell you now, that his intimates all call him by the lowly name of "Cow."

YARNS OF THE TOWN.

Joseph and Mary are Heavenly Twins who contribute to the joys of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boschert, and to the delight of their circle of friends and neighbors. Perhaps only those blessed with twins can appreciate the two-fold measure of enchantment they bring, happiness fully compensating for the labor of love their training involves. But everybody knows how constant and chaste to the parents is their capacity for keeping all hands busy, and that's another blessing. Well, once upon a time, so the story goes, Mrs. Boschert was entertaining a company of ladies, and six-year-old "Joe," immaculate in natty knickerbockers and shining white waist, was the St. Peter who guarded the door and welcomed the guests. Never did St. Peter wear a happier grin than did our little Joe St. Peter at the outset, but as the task began to pall, and the laughter and chatter from within told of the pleasure he was missing, mutiny arose in his diminutive soul, and he shortly appeared upon the threshold of the drawing room, where the ladies had gathered, with this ultimatum: "Mamma, I ain't goin' to open that door no more. You've got enough women in here already."

It was the greatest crowd which ever attended a game here and when the Wisconsin band played the Varsity Toast there was a riot of cheering, waving of pennants. Just before the game the Wisconsin band stopped in front of the Gopher contingent and played Minnesota's Toast, the Gophers responding by playing "On Wisconsin."

Ball brought out to 25 yard line. Capron kicked out of bounds on his 40 yard line. A forward pass went wrong and the ball went to Minnesota on their 35 yard line. Rosenwald made eight yards through center. Stevens was thrown for a three yard loss as the half ended.

LAST MASS FOR MRS. SCHWEBACH

Notables Attend Funeral of Bishop's Mother Held This Morning TO BE BURIED NEXT TUESDAY

Body Is Taken to Old Home in Caledonia, and Interment to Take Place Tuesday

The funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Schwabach were held at St. Joseph's Cathedral at 10 o'clock this morning when pontifical requiem mass, in which thirteen priests officiated, was pronounced.

A large gathering came to the church to hear the services and to pay their last respects to the memory of Mrs. Schwabach.

The priests who officiated in the mass were Rt. Rev. Bishop James Schwabach, Msgr. Ph. A. Kremer of Genoa, Rev. Dr. Condon, Rev. G. Sluyter, Rev. X. Till, Rev. A. Murphy, Rev. A. Beyer, Rev. E. Beyer, Rev. L. Kaluza, Rev. Father Connolly, Rev. Father Joseph Riesterer, Rev. William White and Rev. Father Henderson.

Msgr. Ph. A. Kremer officiated in the requiem high mass and he also preached the German sermon, while Rev. Dr. Condon preached the English sermon.

After the mass Robert B. Condon mounted the pulpit and taking for his text, the words, "I am the Resurrection and the Life," began a most eloquent and touching sermon.

The test, he said, was most appropriate for the occasion. A life replete with virtue, spent in the discharge of duty, and under the influence of the high ideals of the Catholic church had closed, and the large assembly present attested the sympathy which the whole community felt for him whom the whole community loved as they love no one else—Right Rev. Bishop Schwabach.

Over four score years ago that life had begun in far off Luxemburg. Luxemburg was distinguished for its loyalty to the church in trying times. It had not only clung to the church of Jesus Christ, where other places had fallen away, but had endeavored to make its own, in the life of its people, though lofty ideals which that church has ever exhibited. Those ideals filled the atmosphere in which the mother of the bishop had been reared, and they governed all her life, and as wife and mother she had ample opportunity to put all those ideals into practice. She instilled them into her children and they in turn will transmit them on and on. So far-reaching is the influence of the mother, so powerful an instrumentality, where rightly directed is that influence for the upliftment of the human race towards heavenly ideals.

Dr. Condon spoke of the bishop who came to America in his early youth, and of his resolution to labor here, in the name and after the example and for the glory of Jesus Christ. His mother being informed of his resolution, followed him. She had the happiness of seeing him a priest, of being present at his first mass, and of witnessing for years his heavenly ministrations among the poor and sick and helpless, and the zealous discharge of the duties of his sacred office. Then too she had the great happiness of seeing him a successor of the apostles, a bishop of the church of God.

The life of Bishop Schwabach is bound up not only with the history of La Crosse and with the history of Wisconsin, but with the wonderful growth of the church in this part of the world. The fact yielded indeed to his mother. She in turn was most zealous in the practice of religion, being for some years a daily communicant, and resigned under the infirmities of years, she passed her latter days. When the shadows of death gathered about her, she had the consolation of receiving the sacraments, from hands of her dear son, and thus consoled, thus fortified, she passed unto the realization of the text, unto eternal rest.

Rev. Father Kremer gave an eloquent sermon in German alluding to the ties, between mother and son, their many years together, and the consolation left to the bishop and to all by her beautiful life and example.

John Dengler, John C. Burns, J. A. Miller, A. H. Schubert, Joseph Boschert and John Doherty acted as pallbearers.

The body was taken to Caledonia on the C. M. & St. P. railroad this afternoon at 3:30, and services will be held at St. Peter's church there Tuesday morning at nine o'clock. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery at Caledonia.

An attempt is being made to get a special train to go to Caledonia for the services which will be held there but it has not yet been ascertained whether this can be arranged for.

BOARD MAY FIND SERIOUS DEFECT IN POLICE TRIAL

Failure to File Charges May Bar Power of Board to Subpoena Witnesses

NO FORMAL CHARGES FILED

Attorneys Raise Question that This May Prove Serious Handicap to Board

That the "trial" of Detectives Frank Yoltan and Joseph McGrath by the fire and police commission will present grave difficulties owing to defective procedure was the opinion stated by leading lawyers today. Under the commission's interpretation of its duties the fault is not theirs, as the filing of charges is not up to them.

This opinion is to the effect that the failure of the authorities to file formal charges deprives the commission of its power to subpoena and compel the attendance of witnesses. The power of subpoena was conferred on the commission by the legislative session of 1910-11, Sec. 1, Chap. 446, and its authority is extended to the trial of persons "against whom charges are filed."

It was the attitude of the commission at the hearing that no charges had been filed; that the Scott statement had been handed to the commission for its consideration, but no one had cared to father it; that while it is not a function of the commission to try officers in the absence of formal charges properly filed, it proposes to investigate this case at the request of the accused men, as their due, and that in the absence of formal charges the usual custom of suspending the accused pending trial would not be followed, but the men would be permitted to continue on duty.

Even should the commission reverse itself, the question of whether the statement constitutes "charges" would remain. City Attorney A. H. Schubert, who at the request of Mayor Dengler and the commission has consented to assist in handling the investigation, is quoted by a morning paper as having said:

"I am not appearing in this matter as a prosecuting attorney, but merely to assist the board in the investigation. I am not going to appear in an attempt to prove certain charges."

The detectives will be represented by W. F. Wolfe and J. E. Higbee, prominent members of the local bar.

YALE IS DEFEATED

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 18.—Princeton defeated the Yale Bulldog today in a bitterly fought game at New Haven, Conn., by a score of 6 to 3.

The game was a punting battle, throughout with the advantage for Yale. Camp, son of the great authority on football, played a shifty game at fullback, often baffling Princeton by runs around the end when they expected him to boot the ball.

The first half was made thrilling by the daring playing of big Sam White, Tiger left end, who made the spectacular run winning the game from Harvard. He pounced on a Yale fumble and carried the ball from the middle of the field for a touchdown. The field was muddy and slippery. The game was called several times to allow the towel brigade to wipe the mud from the eyes and faces of the players.

Princeton's ends smothered the Yale backfield and they were unable to break away for a long run.

HARVARD IS WINNER

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 18.—Harvard defeated Dartmouth today by a score of 5 to 3.

Good straight old fashioned football with spectacular punting duels at frequent intervals gave Harvard an advantage at the outset. The stadium gridiron was covered with mud and made fast playing impossible. Fumbles were frequent and all the week's practice and secret plays proved of no avail. Huntington fell on a blocked punt behind Dartmouth's goal for the first touchdown for Harvard. Attempts at forward passes proved expensive to Dartmouth several times, allowing Harvard to take the ball. Dartmouth had the advantage in field kicking, making the first score on a field goal.

HUNDREDS ATTEND BILLIKEN DANCE

The dance given by the Billiken Athletic club last night, the first of their winter series, proved to be the success which the members of the club confidently expected. The number of couples at the dance was well over the hundred mark, and all enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The decorations came in for general approval from the dancer.

M'GRATH AND YOLTON FACE INVESTIGATION FOR "GRAFT" NOV. 28

'COPPER' GETS TEN DAYS FOR DRUNK

Police and Fire Commission Show Mercy Toward "Tim" Mahoney Accused by Chief

WEBBER URGES DISCIPLINE

Says He Will Be Unable to Enforce Orders Unless Backed by the Commission

Pleading guilty to the charges of intoxication while on duty, preferred against him by Chief of Police J. B. Webber before the board of Police and Fire Commissioners last night, and throwing himself on the mercy of the board, Patrolman "Tim" Mahoney was suspended for ten days without pay.

The charges were made by Chief Webber in person and in the presence of Patrolman Mahoney, who had been called before the commission. Mahoney freely admitted his guilt but said that he was struggling against his craving for liquor and thought that if the board saw fit to give him "one more chance" he would be able to keep the pledge. He said that he had a wife and six children, the oldest of which was thirteen and the youngest three years of age.

He admitted that he had been suspended for fifteen days once before for the same offense and had been "upon the carpet" before the chief several times for the same reason. He declared that he had suffered much through sickness in the family. Mahoney was closely questioned by different members of the commission who were plainly moved by the plea for mercy.

Chief Webber then addressed the board, putting up an eloquent argument for backing by the board in the maintenance of discipline in the police department. He said that he had no personal enmity toward Mahoney but on the contrary had a feeling of sympathy for him and his family. He declared that he had done everything in his power to "straighten him up," but to no avail and asked severe punishment as a matter of discipline. He said that the office of chief of police would be made almost intolerable unless he was backed up by the board in his efforts to maintain discipline. He declared that he had but shortly before been obliged to call the oldest man of the force before him on the carpet for drinking.

"That man is old enough to be my father," declared the chief in an impassioned outburst, "and I like the old man, but it was impossible for me to allow things to go on as they were. I told him that if he ever drank a drop again while on duty, he would be suspended forthwith. And, gentlemen, I expect you to back me up in my efforts."

This sort of thing has got to stop in the police department," shouted the chief, "but how can I stop it unless the men know that I will be backed up by the board?"

Commissioner William Torrance answered the chief's argument with the succinct reply that the board was at liberty to show a little mercy if it were so inclined and pointed out where the chief said that he had shown this spirit toward the accused man.

Mr. Torrance declared that he would feel inclined to "dig down in his own pocket" and pay Mahoney's fine himself if the commission decided to punish him by a fine. He declared that the man himself would not suffer much from the action of the board as would his wife and six children.

Suspension without pay was the only punishment discussed by the board. The first sentence mentioned was thirty days but after Mr. Torrance's plea for the wife and "kids" the talk dropped to twenty days. As Mr. Torrance grew in eloquence the sentence shrank in days and until it looked as though Mahoney would get off with a very light reprimand.

Chief Webber entered the arena at this stage and as a result the ten days' sentence was reached as a compromise.

This is Patrolman Mahoney's second suspension. The last time he "got" fifteen days. The watch incident did not come up.

APPEAL DENIED.

In the case of the Hussa Brewing company vs. the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad company, an appeal for a new trial was denied and judgment of $337 was granted the defendant.

COMMISSION TO PROBE CHARGES AGAINST POLICE

Police and Fire Board Takes Action on Presentation of Statement by Mayor Dengler

SCHUBERT WILL GIVE AID

City Attorney Given Power to Procure Evidence and Witnesses for the Trial

DEFENSE IS TO BE NOTIFIED

Accused Detectives with Attorneys and Witnesses Will Appear Before the Commission

The board of police and fire commissioners will investigate the charges of "graft" made against Detectives Joseph McGrath and Frank Yoltan. The investigation will be held in the city hall on Tuesday evening, November 28, City Attorney A. H. Schubert will conduct the prosecution and is authorized to procure such evidence as is in his power to collect before that time and to serve subpoenas on witnesses.

Messrs. McGrath and Yoltan, together with their attorneys and such witnesses as they wish to call for the defense, will be notified to appear before the board at that time and answer to the charges.

Messrs. McGrath and Yoltan will not be suspended pending the investigation.

This was the decision of the board of police and fire commissioners at a meeting in the office of Chief of Police J. B. Webber last night following the presentation of the Scott charges to the board by Mayor John Dengler. Charges of misconduct in office and violation of their duties as detectives and officers of the La Crosse police department against McGrath and Yoltan, made by Frank Scott before Mayor Dengler and District Attorney James Thompson, were laid before the board by the mayor in writing. The statement was accompanied by no recommendation from the mayor other than for investigation and such further action that the board found advisable. Mayor Dengler did not appear before the board in person.

VICTORY SCORED IN LIGHT CASE

Commission's Decision Allows Increase that Will Amount to Less than $2,000 per Year

What is characterized as a victory was scored for the people today when the Wisconsin Railroad Commission, acting on the application of the La Crosse Gas & Electric company for permission to raise local gas and electricity rates, refused to allow the bulk of the increases petitioned for. If the petition of the company had been granted approximately $30,000 increase in the annual receipts of the utility would have resulted, while under the decision of the commission their receipts will be increased less than $2,000 per annum, according to the estimates of Attorney Frank Winter.

The decision ends one of the most interesting fights in the history of the city's utilities and one in which the board of trade, Manufacturers' & Jobbers' Club, Progressive League, Trades and Labor Council and other civic organizations aligned against the company.

An application for an increase from $1.00 to $1.15 per thousand cubic feet of gas was turned down by the commission.

The one increase asked by the company which would have effected every residence in the city was for a raise from ten cents to fifteen cents per kilowatt on minimum bills. This would have increased the bills for electricity in residences at least thirty per cent.

The commission refused to allow an increase in the service charge for residences but allowed a slight increase for service charge on business lighting. This increase will effect only a few of the largest users of electricity in stores, saloons, etc.

The commission allowed an increase from seventy-five cents to $1.00 on minimum bills, the increase affecting only a few consumers.

Attorney Frank Winter represented the citizens in opposition to the increases and associated with him were Attorneys John H. Doherty, F. H. Hartwell and J. E. Higbee.

According to Mr. Winter the residence consumers are practically unaffected by the increases allowed by the commission.

U. S. WINS POINT AGAINST PACKERS

Circuit Judge Kohlsaat Quashes Habeas Corpus Granted Ten Millionaires

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Ten millionaires packing house magnates whom the government has sought for more than eight years to bring to trial on charges of violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, will face a jury on Monday.

The last avenue of escape, the final plan to temporize, and the last desperate expedient of the packers to stave off a trial, was blocked by decision of the U. S. court, Judge C. C. Kohlsaat today when he quashed a writ of habeas corpus previously sued out by them; and, in granting them an appeal from this decision, refused to take the defendants out of the custody of the district court, and requiring that the indicted beef barons should be surrendered back to their sureties, who are pledged to the district court to produce them for trial on Monday.

Counsel for the packers were granted right to appeal on the question of whether the writ of habeas corpus, which involves also an attempt to have the Sherman law's penal section declared unconstitutional, because of indefiniteness, to the supreme court of the United States. But by refusing himself to admit the defendants to bail, and requiring that they should be surrendered back to their bondsmen, Judge Kohlsaat keeps the packers in the physical custody of the district court, and so far as lawyers could figure out today, makes it impossible for the defendants to avoid standing trial beginning Monday. Their appeal on the habeas corpus writ is separated from the main issue in the case.

It now seems inevitable that the beef barons must face a jury on Monday. It will be the first time since July 1, 1903—when the government first began its prosecution against them—that the department of justice has succeeded in forcing them to trial. Through nearly nine years of litigation, the defendants have successfully interposed obstacle after more obstacle, and legal delay after more legal delay, to prevent consummation of the government's plans.

The men are indicted for criminal conspiracy to restrain commerce, and, if convicted, may be sent to jail.

SON OF PIONEER HELD FOR FRAUD

George Reed, Whose Father Gave Name to Reeds Landing, Held on Dakota Charge

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 18.—George Reed, son of the late C. R. Reed, after whom Reeds Landing, on Lake Pepin, was named, is in the county jail. He was arrested late yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Joseph Schutta on information from Sheriff E. B. Olson of Williston, N. D., charging Reed with obtaining grain at Hamlet, N. D., by fraudulent checks.

A. W. Selover has been retained by Reed and has arranged to fight extradition. His client has told Mr. Selover that eighteen carloads of grain were purchased and paid for by checks which the First National bank at Hamlet honored, until it was seen there was to be a loss of about $1,000 on the deal. Reeds says the bank was to have half the profits, but withdrew when losses loomed.

The purchase of grain amounted to about $20,000, according to Reed. The price dropped between time of purchase and sale and then it was, according to Reed, that the bank set the authorities upon him.

"Most of the grain has been paid for," said A. W. Selover, "and my client has declared a willingness to see that all amounts still due from sales be turned over to those from whom the grain was bought."

COULD HARDLY BEAR SUFFERING

Mrs. Duncan, of Pryor, Tells Story of Her Intense Suffering, and Describes Harrowing Symptoms

Pryor, Okla.—"I suffered so much I could hardly bear it," says Mrs. Mollie Duncan, of this place.

"For 17 years, I had been afflicted with womanly troubles, and had different doctors give me treatment, but none of them helped me any.

I had such drawing-down pains, and a pain in my side. Also headache and dizzy spells. I was very weak, and could not be up at times.

I decided to try Cardui, and I will say I am not sorry that I did, for it helped me wonderfully. I feel like a new person. I intend to keep Cardui in the house, just as long as I live, for it has done me so much good."

Remember that Cardui is a mild, safe remedy, composed of valuable medicinal ingredients, which help to build up vitality, tone up the nerves, and strengthen the womanly constitution.

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings, and building weak women up to health and strength. No other medicine has exactly the same results as Cardui. No other medicine has the long record of success in treating cases of womanly weakness and disease.

It will help you.

Suppose you try it.

RECORD SYSTEM IS MONEY SAVER

James T. Day Tells of the Merits of New Bookkeeping that Will Save Money for City

J. T. Day of the board of public works who recently attended a meeting of the heads of the water departments of many cities in numerous states of the union at Madison, said today that the main topic of discussion was the keeping of uniform records by the department which would enable one to determine the exact amount of money spent on any kind of labor in this work.

The railroad rate commission has ordered that such a system be installed here and in other places so that one can determine just how every cent of money is spent. Mr. Day says that the system is a good one and he will make an attempt to have records of this kind kept here as he thinks that the department could be conducted much more systematically but whether or not this can be done is not known. However, he asserts that when Mr. Roemer, a member of the commission, was here that he told him to get this system of keeping records here and that it therefore will have to be done.

There are many advantages in keeping records of this kind and while at Madison the representatives of many states examined carefully the system used there which is very efficient. At the present time many different methods of keeping records of the water departments are used in the various cities and when a meeting of the different cities is held it is difficult to understand everything as so many systems are in vogue. If a uniform system of keeping records was used in every city this difficulty would be eradicated and much better results would be obtained by the conventions.

Efforts will be made in the near future to get the system in use here as it is deemed that the affairs of the water department could be much better conducted. As the commission has ordered the installation of such records something will have to be done and it is likely that the council will be asked to assist for additional employees will be required when the system is in use here.

SCHWAB DENIES BLAME FOR REVOLT

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Charles M. Schwab, who returned on the Mauretania yesterday, said that during his three weeks' visit in Pekin, China, he had heard that an agreement had been signed by the minister of the navy and the representative of an American syndicate involving a large loan to be expended for armaments. The agreement also provided for their exclusive construction in America of all war vessels required by China during the next few years. He refused to vouch for the accuracy of the story. Schwab characterized as absurd the statement that the steel interests are in any way responsible for the revolution.

YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A Harmless Remedy, Made from Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs quite early in life. Of course, it is unnatural, and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual, and that Nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If everything is right with Nature, the hair, even in comparatively elderly people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to Nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff, but strengthens weak, thin and falling hair and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Get a bottle today, and let it do for you what it has done for thousands of others.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

LA FOLLETTE TOO HAS BEEN DOWN AND OUT

"So Woodrow Wilson is down and out," says Harper's Weekly. "Dear, dear! Who would have thought it? But we may not blink a fact—and this one we have upon the highest political authority. Ex-Senator James Smith, Jr., emerging from the capacious shell which he has inhabited since he was elected to stay in New York, dolefully shakes his wise head, and his good friend, the Sun, finds that the governor has suddenly become a candidate emeritus." All because of what? Because he has been "repudiated" by his state. Because the "magnificent democratic organization" of New Jersey has been disrupted by his cantankerous insistence upon keeping party pledges. Because, speaking frankly, he fought the big boss and licked him. Because, as an inevitable consequence, the next legislature will be republican. So! But what really happened? The Springfield Republican sums it up neatly: "The New Jersey house was lost because of Essex county, which is the one of James Smith, Jr., the foe of Governor Wilson's political aspirations; and Essex county became impulsive, from the Wilson point of

The Yells
Hear the rooters with their yells—
College yells!
What a world of happiness it noisily foretells!
How they holler, holler, holler,
Through the thickest of the fight
Sending out a happy cheer.
On the balmy atmosphere
To the tackles left and right;
Keeping time, time, time,
In a Runic, rooting rhyme,
To the loud reverberation that tumultuously swells
From the yells, yells, yells, yells,
Yells, yells, yells—
From the roaring and outpouring of
the yells.

He Was Too Great a Reader
The Journal Français, a little sheet published by the Society of Teachers of French in England, gives in its first issue an amusing instance of La Crosse's thirst for knowledge. La Crosse, it may be observed, was a celebrated French physician, and to him is credited the first mention in Europe of the India rubber tree.

One day the savant visited Mme. de Choiseul. She was at that time engaged in correspondence and wished to finish her letter. He approached close to her, and was reading over her shoulder what she was writing. She perceived the maneuver and continued writing: "I would tell you more about it if M. La Crosse were not behind me reading what I am writing."

Gifted
"He has a remarkable gift of self-concentration, I am told."
"Yes, indeed. Why, he could sit and play solitaire in a woman's conversation club."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Powerful in Prayer
James H. Stewart, director of the agricultural experiment station at Morgantown, was in Pittsburgh the other day. He is an exceptionally big man, with all the native American fondness of big men for humor, love to listen to a good story, and love to tell one. Here is his latest:

"I attended a colored campmeeting in one of our West Virginia counties where there is a large colored population and while there heard a powerful prayer by one of the preachers in behalf of the missionaries. 'Oh Lawd,' he prayed, 'extend Thy protecting arm over de missionaries in all parts ob de wul; in Asia and in Persia; in Europe and in Africa; in de land ob de midnight sun, and in de islands ob de sea; and espeshully, oh Lawd, guard and watch ob de missionaries in dat fah off land whar de foot of man has never trod and dat de eye of Gawd has never seen.'—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

The Fame of Li Hung Chang
There are far too many famous men nowadays, and it is not easy to remember exactly who is who. They were discussing the Chinese situation in the bar and the man who had visited China began to give his views. "Do you remember Li Hung Chang?" he began. "I knew him well." To which the sporting-looking gentleman in the corner answered, "What? Remember him? I saw him last night. Best music hall juggler I've seen for a long time."—London Chronicle.

Two Opinions
"I thought she exhibited verve and aplomb," said Mrs. Oldcastle.
"Did you?" replied her hostess.
"Josiah said she had nerve, but was a peach."—Chicago Record-Herald.

KIDNEY TROUBLE CAUSES LUMBAGO

Remarkable Story About Great Remedy

I cannot refrain from writing to say that your Swamp-Root has benefited me greatly. Last year I had a severe attack of lumbago. I was in bed for a long time, and on seeing your advertisement, I determined to give it a trial. I did so and in two weeks was cured. I gave a bottle to a poor woman who could scarcely walk. She came to me in four days to tell me she was all right and most thankful. I had another attack last November and was so bad that I could not rise from my chair without assistance and could hardly lace up my boots. I at once sent for more Swamp-Root and after taking two bottles, I am more than glad that I am well again. My age being seventy-three, I am the more convinced of the excellence of Swamp-Root.

Yours very truly,

BROUGHT TO LIGHT

La Crosse People Receiving the Full Benefit

There have been many cases like the following in La Crosse. Everyone relates the experience of people we know. These plain, straightforward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people.

A. Ohlhaugen, 1115 Caledonia St., La Crosse, Wis., says: "I was caused a great deal of distress by attacks of pain across my back and sides. I had headaches and was miserable in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me soon after I began their use and I am now feeling so much better in every way that I do not hesitate to advise other kidney sufferers to try this remedy." (Statement given June 25, 1907.)

RE-ENDORSEMENT

The PRODIGAL JUDGE

The Famous Novel by
VAUGHAN KESTER

Copyright, 1911, The Bobbs-Merrill Company

He was so completely lost in his bitter reflections that he had been unaware of a mounted man who was coming toward him at a swift gallop, but now he heard the steady pounding of hoofs and, startled by the sound, looked up. A moment later the horseman drew rein at his side.

"Ware!" he cried.
"How are you, Carrington?" said the planter.
"You are wanted at Belle Plain," began Carrington, and seemed to hesitate.

"Yes—yes, I am going there at once—now—" stammered Ware, and gathered up his reins with a shaking hand.
"You've heard, I take it?" said Carrington slowly.
"Yes," answered Ware, in a hoarse whisper. "My God, Carrington, I'm heart sick; she has been like a daughter to me—I—" he fell silent, mopping his face.

"I think I understand your feeling," said Carrington, giving him a level glance.
"Then you'll excuse me," and the planter clapped spurs to his horse. Once he looked back over his shoulder; he saw that Carrington had not moved from the spot where they had met.

At Belle Plain, Ware found his neighbors in possession of the place. They greeted him quietly and spoke in subdued tones of their sympathy. The planter listened with an air of such abject misery that those who had neither liked nor respected him, were roused to a sudden generous feeling, where he was concerned; they could not question but that he was deeply affected. After all the man might have a side to his nature with which they had never come in contact.

When he could he shut himself in his room. He had experienced a day of maddening anxiety; he had not slept at all the previous night; in mind and body he was worn out; and now he was plunged into the thick of this sensation. He must keep control of himself, for every word he said would be remembered. In the present there was sympathy for him, but sooner or later people would return to their sordid unemotional judgments.

He sought to forecast the happenings of the next few hours. Murrell's friends would break jail for him, that was a foregone conclusion; but the insurance he had planned was at an end. Hues had dealt its death blow. Moreover, though the law might be impotent to deal with Murrell, he could not hope to escape the vengeance of the powerful class he had plotted to destroy; he would have to quit the country. Ware gloated in this idea of craven flight. Thank God, he had seen the last of him!

But, as always, his thoughts came back to Betty. Slosson would wait at Hicks' place for the fan Murrell had promised him, and, failing the messenger, for the signal fire, but there would be neither; and Slosson would be left to determine his own course of action. Ware felt certain that he would wait through the night, but as sure as the morning broke, if no word had reached him, he would send one of his men across the bayou, who must learn of Murrell's arrest, escape, flight—for in Ware's mind these three events were indissolubly associated. The planter's teeth knocked together. He was having a terrible acquaintance with fear, its very depths had swallowed him up; it was a black pit in which he sank from horror to horror. He had lost all faith in the Clan which had terrorized half a dozen states, which had robbed and murdered with apparent impunity, which had marked its hundreds of stolen slaves. He had utterly collapsed at the first blow dealt the organization, but he was still seeing Murrell, pale and shaken.

A step sounded in the hall and an instant later Hicks entered the room

IOWA APPROVES BIG RAIL MERGER

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 18.—The state executive council yesterday approved the request of the Minneapolis & St. Louis railroad to issue $10,000,000 in capital stock in exchange for the Iowa Central railroad, and $2,500,000 in cash. Later the Minneapolis & St. Louis proposes to merge with the Minnesota, Dakota & Pacific railway and the Iowa Central and Western. A branch of the road is to be built from Albia to St. Louis and extensions made north from Minneapolis into Canada, giving a new route from the south and east to the north and west via Des Moines.

Stockholders of the Minneapolis & St. Louis will meet Dec. 18 at Minneapolis and the Iowa Central stockholders will meet at the same time in Chicago to ratify the action. G. W. Seavers, general counsel of the Minneapolis & St. Louis, convinced the state officials of the stability of the proposed merger.

without the formality of knocking. Ware recognized his presence with a glance of indifference, but did not speak. Hicks slouched to his employer's side and handed him a note which proved to be from Pentress. Ware read and tossed it aside.

"If he wants to see me why don't he come here?" he growled.
"I reckon that old fellow they call Judge Price has sprung something sudden on the colonel," said Hicks.
"He was out here the first thing this morning; you'd have thought he owned Belle Plain. There was a couple of strainers with him, and he had me in and fired questions at me for half an hour; then he hiked off up to the Oaks."

"Murrell's been arrested," said Ware in a dull level voice. Hicks gave him a glance of unmixed astonishment.
"No!"
"Yes, by God!"
"Who'd risk it?"
"Risk it? Man, he almost fainted dead away—a damned coward. Hell!"

"How do you know this?" asked Hicks, appalled.
"I was with him when he was taken—it was Hues—the man he trusted more than any other." Ware gave the overseer a ghastly grin and was silent, but in that silence he heard the drumming of his own heart. He went on, "I tell you, to save himself, John Murrell will implicate the rest of us; we've got to get him free, and then, by hell—we ought to knock him in the head; he isn't fit to live!"

"The jail ain't built that'll hold him!" muttered Hicks.
"Of course, he can't be held," agreed Ware. "And he'll never be brought to trial; no lawyer will dare appear against him, no jury will dare find him guilty; but there's Hues, what about him?" He paused. The two men looked at each other for a long moment.

"Where did they carry the captain?"
"I don't know."
"It looks like the Clan was in a hell-fired hole—but shucks! What will be easier than to fix Hues?—and while they're fixing folks they'd better not overlook that old fellow, Price. He's got some notion about Fentress and the boy." Mr. Hicks did not consider it necessary to explain that he was himself largely responsible for this.

"How do you know that?" demanded Ware.
"He as good as said so," Hicks looked uneasily at the planter. He knew himself to be compromised. The stranger named Cavendish had forced an admission from him that Murrell would not condone if it came to his knowledge. He had also acquired a very proper and wholesome fear of Judge Slosson Price. He stepped close to Ware's side. "What'll come of the girl, Tom? Can you figure that out?" he questioned, sinking his voice almost to a whisper. But Ware was incapable of speech, again his terrors completely overwhelmed him. "I reckon you'll have to find another overseer. I'm going to strike out for Texas," said Hicks. (To be Continued)

A Bad Mistake

"And you mistook her for another young lady, eh? Nothing in that to get mad about."

Prescriptions that Soon Knock Rheumatism

The only logical treatment for rheumatism is through the blood. The poisons that settle in muscles, joints and back, causing severe pain, must be dissolved and expelled from the system or there can be no relief. This prescription from a noted doctor is said to be working wonders all over the country. Hundreds of the worst cases were cured by it here last winter. "From your druggist get one ounce of Toris compound (in original sealed package) and one ounce of syrup of Sarsaparilla compound. Take these two ingredients home and put them into a half pint of good whiskey. Shake the bottle and take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bed-time." Results come the first day. If your druggist does not have Toris compound in stock he will get it in a few hours from his wholesale house. Don't be influenced to take some patented medicine instead of this. Insist on having the genuine Toris compound in the original, one ounce, sealed, yellow package.

BIG GAMES TO BE PLAYED TODAY

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Interest in football in the middle west today centered on the Wisconsin-Minnesota game at Madison, where the two top notchers of the season meet to fight for the conference championship. A bitterly contested battle is expected. Northwestern, the dopesters say, has an excellent chance to beat Illinois. The field will probably be frozen, which is believed to favor the purple.

Michigan fears Pennsylvania's sudden round into form may give them a decisive victory at Ann Arbor this afternoon. Injuries will force the Wolverines to face the easterners with a make-shift eleven. Shock of Second Operation Is Fatal to North Side Woman at St. Francis Hospital

Erick Erickson, 90, for thirty years a resident of the north side died at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of a daughter in Caledonia, Minn., after a brief illness. The cause of death was his advanced age.

Mr. Erickson was born in Norway in 1821. He came to America in 1873, at the age of 52 years, and settled in North La Crosse. He lived for thirty years at 1430 Avon street, a home now occupied by his son. Eight years ago he went to live with a daughter, Mrs. Peter Nelson, at Caledonia, Minn. Up until the time he left La Crosse, Mr. Erickson was actively engaged as a carpenter.

He is survived by five sons and a daughter. The sons are Ebrat, Arndt, and Charles, of La Crosse; Arne, Onalaska; and Martin, Bonner, Mont. His death is also mourned by many grandchildren and a few great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon from the residence of his son, 1430 Charles street, Rev. O. L. Christensen will officiate. Burial will be made in Oak Grove cemetery. The body arrived this morning from Caledonia.

Mrs. Findelsen was born in 1856. She has been a resident of La Crosse for the last twenty-five years. Her death is mourned by two sons and three daughters as well as her husband. HARVARD CLASHES WITH DARTMOUTH

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 18.—On a field of mud and slime, the Dartmouth football team meets her bitter rival, Harvard, at the stadium today at 2 o'clock.

The rain that started shortly after midnight was still falling heavily when a crowd of 30,000 or more began to arrive at the big oval. The downpour could not keep the crowd back today. Straw and canvas covered the field at night, but it did little or no good.

HOGAN BEATS BROWN

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—After one of the most furious ten round bouts seen in this city in years, "One Round" Hogan, the Pacific coast prize, has again qualified as an opponent for lightweight champion Ad Wolgast by disposing of "Knockout" Brown who all but took the count in the final period of the battle. The sporting fraternity seems agreed that the champion will have no easy task when he meets Hogan. Tentative plans for a battle on Christmas day on the Pacific coast were set afoot by Hogan's manager today.

How to Stretch Out Your Wrinkles

(From Beauty Culture)
An old-time wrinkle remedy that is wonderfully effective, and yet so harmless it can be put on the face of a baby without any bad result, is made by dissolving an ounce of saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. Bathing the face in this solution—neck and hands, too, if needed—at once affects every line, wrinkle and furrow. The effect is to tighten the skin and underlying tissue, which virtually stretches out the wrinkles. It is apparent that the same effect means the "drawing in" of folds and bagginess about the cheeks, neck, chin or hands. Ask the druggist for the powdered saxolite, the form is easily dissolved.

ONE DOSE MAKES INDIGESTION GO

Heartburn, Gas, Dyspepsia and all Stomach distress ended with a little Diapepsin

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating, and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sour your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Bloating, Constipation, Griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapepsin will cost fifty cents at any Pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer 5 minutes after taking a single dose that Fermentation and Sour Stomach is causing the misery of indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the Stomach, Nervousness or Gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapepsin will regulate any out-of-order Stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.

BRYAN AND HARMON MAY MEET AT FEAST

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 18.—There will be a notable gathering of northwestern and other democrats here on Jan 17 and 18, which will be attended by some of the party leaders, including at least one prospective presidential candidate.

A telegram from Governor Harmon of Ohio states that he will be present. William J. Bryan says he will make every effort to attend.
Former Governor Folk of Missouri,
Governor Norris of Montana, Martin J. Wade of Iowa, J. B. Sullivan of Iowa and former Senator Pettigrew of South Dakota are some of the men who will attend.

It takes a woman to generate enthusiasm over a present that is of no earthly use.

HANDS WOULD BURN LIKE FIRE

Could Lay Pin in Cracks. Four Long Years of Eczema. Only Relief in Scratching. Used One Set of Cuticura Remedies.
Hands Entirely Well.

"I can truthfully say Cuticura Remedies have cured me of four long years of eczema. About four years ago I noticed some little pimples coming on my little finger, and not giving it any attention, it soon became worse and spread all over my hands. If I would have them in water for a long time, they would burn like fire and large cracks would come. I could lay a pin in them. After using all the salves I could think of, I went to three different doctors, but all did me no good. The only relief I got was scratching.
"So after hearing so much about the wonderful Cuticura Remedies, I purchased one complete set, and after using them three days my hands were much better. To-day my hands are entirely well, one set being all I used." (Signed)
Miss Etta Narber, R. F. D. 2, Spring
Lake, Mich., Sept. 21, 1910.

No stronger evidence than this could be given of the success and economy of the Cuticura Remedies in the treatment of torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin. A single hot bath with Cuticura Soap and a gentle anointing with Cuticure Ointment are often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing cases and permit rest and sleep when all else fails. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are equally effective in preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, and hands.
Although Cuticura Soap (25c.) and Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are sold throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. book on the skin and scalp, will be mailed free on application to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept.
2B, Boston, Mass.

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED TO STAY, and when I say cured, I mean just what I say—CURED, and not merely patched up for awhile, to return worse than before. Remember! I make this broad statement after putting ten years of my time on this one disease and handling in the mean-time a quarter of a million cases of this dreadful disease. Now, I do not care what all you have used, nor how many doctors have told you that you could not be cured—
I ask is just a chance to show you that I know what I am talking about. If you will write me TO-DAY, I will send you a FREE TRIAL of my mild, soothing, guaranteed cure that will convince you in a day that I or anyone else could in a month's time. If you are disgusted and discouraged,
I dare you to give me a chance to prove my claims.
By writing me to-day you will enjoy more real comfort than you had ever thought this world holds for you. Just try it and you will see I am telling you the truth.

OLD GRUDGE IS TO BLAME

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 18.—A petty grudge of two years standing so weighed upon the mind of Jack Phillips, 38, a railroad engineer, that he developed an intense hatred for A. N. Gear, secretary of the local order of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, resulted in the murder of Gear and the attempted suicide of Phillips here. Entering Gear's jewelry store on Thursday, Phillips shot Gear to death.

Sisters of Phillips say the engineer held a grudge against Gear because he believed the brotherhood man responsible for his expulsion from the local for nonpayment of dues.

Phillips may recover.

DULUTH, Minn., Nov. 18.—Six inches of snow, the first of the sea-navigation is threatened because of a heavy northwest wind. Severe cold weather accompanies the snowstorm.

There is six inches of ice in the Suferryboat navigation is blocked, the earliest condition of this kind in seventeen years.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years

ROSES REIGN AT BIG FLOWER SHOW

Profusion of Beautiful Buds Used in Decorative Scheme Today, and Hundreds Attend

FINAL DAY OF THE EVENT

First in History of the City Promises to Become a Regular Society Function

The center of attraction at the flower show in the Masonic temple yesterday afternoon and evening was the display of carnations. The whole south side of the hall was lined with tables on which were displayed vases full of these flowers in varying tints.

Every color that is known to the trade was on exhibition. There were white, rose pink and red in a half-dozen different shades. One flower that caused special comment was a vase of rose-pink Enchanters. Their beautiful coloring and formation surprised and delighted the spectators of the show.

The display of carnations is not up to what was expected and planned by the La Crosse Floral company. The sudden extreme cold weather of the last few days had the effect of retarding the growth of the flowers, and the larger part of the carnations that were to be exhibited failed to open in time. The exhibit, however, includes excellent typical specimens of practically every carnation grown by the company. The only disappointing feature is that there was not such an abundance of flowers as was planned upon.

The show continues to attract crowds of beauty lovers both in the afternoon and evening. The settings lining the walls of the hall are as a rule filled with onlookers, and the winding paths of the exhibit are choked with persons exclaiming over the beauty of the flowers.

Today the final day of the show, is the big day. There are complete exhibits of roses, carnations, and chrysanthemums, including a specimen of nearly every type of bloom grown by the company. Today is the day that each school in the city will be presented with a pot of chrysanthemums. It is expected that the attendance today will outstrip all previous records. At the time of going to press Mr. Schaefer asserted that the largest afternoon crowd that had so far visited the exhibition was flocking into the hall.

duct the prosecution at the request of the mayor and the board of commissioners. Attorneys W. F. Wolfe and J. E. Higbee will appear for the defense. McGrath and Yoltan were not present at the meeting of the board last night, but they made it known to the board that they "courted" the investigation.

The date of the investigation was set on the 25th because Commissioner L. C. Colman expects to be out of town on business and will be unable to return before that date.

The matter of the charges against the detectives was not discussed to any great length during the meeting, the members taking the stand that no one had made formal complaint of "graft" and that the accused men were anxious to have the investigation for the purpose of proving their innocence.

"This board will act as judge and jury," said Chairman G. M. Woodward. "Attorney Schubert will present such evidence of conduct unbecoming officers as he is able to find. Messrs. McGraw and Yoltan with their attorneys and witnesses will be present. Mr. Schubert will subpoena such witnesses as are said to have knowledge of the violations of law by the officers. The facts will come out at that time."

When the question of suspending the men pending the investigation was raised, it was the opinion of the board that in view of the fact that McGrath and Yoltan desired the investigation and that no formal charges had been lodged against them, the suspension should not be made.

"If the accusations came from a reputable citizen of La Crosse," said Commissioner William Torrance, "it would be a different matter. But considering the standing of Frank Scott in the community, they do not have much weight with me."

The meeting adjourned with no further action.

The statement of the mayor as laid before the board is given as follows:

Mayor's Statement

"To the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners of the City of La Crosse, La Crosse County, Wis.: Gentlemen: "On the 10th day of November A. D. 1911, certain charges were made to me by Frank Scott in the presence of James Thompson, district attorney for La Crosse county, state of Wisconsin, charging Joseph McGrath and Frank Yoltan with misconduct in office and violation of their duties as detectives and officers of the police department of the city of La Crosse. The statement made by him was reduced to writing by Mr. Thompson and a copy of the charges so made and taken down by Mr. Thompson are hereto attached and presented to the board of police and fire commissioners for investigation and for such further action as to them shall seem advisable.

"Yours truly,

"JOHN DENGLE.

"Mayor of the City of La Crosse."

The Scott statement, the essential parts of which have been published, was attached to the mayor's letter.

TAX FIGHT ENDS IN COMPROMISE

City Defeated by One Vote on Majority Report; City Real Estate Lowered

STONE PILE ADD TO JAIL

Resolution Provides for Rock Pile; Stenographer for Court; Trempealeau Members Here

The tax fight was settled by a compromise by the members of the board of equalization and the report adopted by a vote of thirty-six to one at the morning session of the county board. By the compromise, the report of Supervisor of Assessments J. E. Keizer, with the exception of a one per cent reduction on the real estate valuation of the city, was accepted. The compromise was effected following the adjournment yesterday and the minority report, adopted by the rural faction, was not submitted to the board.

The compromise will mean a reduction of about $160,000 in the real estate valuations of the city, the report of Mr. Keizer being about that much higher.

Kindley Report Killed

The city faction was defeated on the assessment report by one vote at the meeting of the county board yesterday afternoon. The majority report of the board of equalization which was presented by Supervisor Kindley, leader of the city faction, was killed, the vote standing 18 to 19.

A stone pile for the La Crosse county jail. Thirty-six members of the county board decided this morning that this is the proper method to apply to keep the jail from becoming overcrowded.

Several years ago the stone pile of the La Crosse county jail was abandoned.

Gets Stenographer

Judge Brindley will have a court stenographer in the future and all county court testimony will be taken in short hand as the result of the unanimous adoption of the resolution providing a county court stenographer. The salary shall not exceed $50 per month.

The report of the building and grounds committee on the improvements to the county jail and court house was unanimously adopted, as was the report on poor and insane.

Other reports adopted are: Report on county agricultural school, report recommending an $8,000 appropriation for court expenses for the coming year, reports of special bridge committees, assessed valuation, report of Supervisor of Assessments J. E. Keizer as a basis on assessment on levying tax of the individual taxpayer, report recommending an appropriation of $17,600 for maintenance of the county poor farm, report on soldiers' relief fund, report of the buildings and grounds committee and ways and means committee on the question of insuring county buildings in the state insurance fund, which was opposed by the committee, report on traveling library, and report of claims committee.

The following resolutions were submitted: An appropriation of $837 for bridges in the town of Burns; and a resolution providing a fund for the aid of the blind.

The total of the report of the claims committee is $4,233.27. The total amount paid on bounties was $386.

A resolution to the effect that the representatives of La Crosse county in the state legislature, present an amendment on the ratio of division of the tax derived on legacies, at the next session of the state legislature, was adopted. According to the resolution, the county does not receive a fair share of the tax on legacies.

The unanimous report of the printing contract had been let to the La Crosse Tribune at fifty-two cents per folio, after a debate in which Supervisors Kindley, Keppel and Cox opposed it, was adopted by a large majority.

Supervisors of the Trempealeau county board met the La Crosse county board on the McGillivray bridge question today.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—In accordance with the rule which usually prevails after violent stock exchange commotion, and in sequence to the sharp recovery the partial reaction and the still smaller after-recovery, today's stock market lapsed into some uncertainty. Two stocks, Union Pacific and Amalgamated Copper reached this morning the highest prices scored on this month's recovery, but did not maintain them. No doubt the course of prices in the immediate future depends primarily on the extent to which signs of trade revival show themselves and on the extent to which the recent stock exchange movement has actually anticipated them.

It is no more natural for fat people to be fatuous than for lean people to be benighted.

NEW AUTHORITY IN WATER CASE

State Board of Health Is Drawn Into La Crosse Case to Corroborate Well Order

Madison, Wis., Nov. 18, 1911.

Tribune, La Crosse, Wis.

Commission will not re-open water case. If a new well is sunk the commission will test all of the wells again and the state board of health will analyze the water. This is done to satisfy certain members of the common council as well as the citizens of La Crosse.

J. R. ROEMER.
"The state railroad commission will not reopen the La Crosse water case."

This statement was made today by Chairman Roemer of the commission. The statement was positively made at Madison that the commission proposed to take steps that would effectively answer the Bradish complaint. The commission will take new tests, jointly with the city, and will submit them for analysis to the State Board of Health. As tests already made have not varied, and as they support the reports already made, the new tests will be in the nature of corroboration of the report of the commission, as no material variation in results is even remotely possible.

The action of the railroad commission brings a new agency into the case, as up to this time the health department has not exerted its authority. The state health officials have the power to prohibit a city from using a water source calculated to be detrimental to the public health.

The supply test, to be made by constant and heavy pumping is not the idea of the commission, but is an activity of the city to test out the idea of Mr. Bradish that the quantity of water may be insufficient.

So far from promising a reversal of the railroad commission's order, the further proceedings are expected by the experts to strengthen the evidence in favor of wells, and they will probably add the weight of authority of the State Board of Health to that of the state railroad commission.

THE HOME AND PICTURES

The possession of a number of perfect reproductions of authentic masterpieces affords a satisfaction of the highest character, for the reason that they exert a constant refining as well as educative influence upon old and young alike, and the greater the familiarity with them the more genuine the esteem in which they are held.

One of the prime essentials of culture is, of course, an intelligent acquaintance with the arts.

The home is the important starting point. But it is better a hundred times to have no art in the home than to have poor and tawdry pretenses at art, for a perverted taste is very much worse than an undeveloped one. One good thing outweighs in worth a whole room full of showy shams; and there is no denying the fact that the eagerness to possess pictures for the ornamentation of the home has led many persons into the purchase of mere wall pieces not greatly superior to the paper patterns they hide.

President Taft will take up with Secretary of War Stimson charges of Charges of combination by the rail-store the American merchant marine. Baker declares that pressure of railroad interests has been brought to bear upon the ship builders and capitalists who in organizing the Atpany. This pressure was so strong, he says, that the ship builders declined to build steamships for the company and bankers and others withdrew their stock.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO AID BLACK RIVER

A movement was set on foot yesterday afternoon at a meeting of all the grade school principals of the city to collect a fund for the relief of the Black River flood sufferers among the grade school pupils of La Crosse. The meeting was held in Superintendent Benezet's office at the high school.

Boxes will be put up in all the schools, in which the pupils can drop whatever amount they desire to give to aid the flood sufferers. Donations of clothing will also be accepted, and a box will be sent to the stricken city.

Home Face Peeling Becomes Popular

(From Fashion Reporter)
No complexion treatment yet discovered seems to have become so generally and so immediately popular as the mercolized wax process. Evidently the reason for this is that this method actually gets rid of a bad complexion, which can hardly be said of any other.

To temporarily hide or bleach the defective skin by the use of some cream, jelly, powder or liquid, cannot compare with the effect of literally removing the skin itself. Mercolized wax takes off the offending surface skin in flour-like particles, a small quantity at a time, until there's none of it left. The new complexion thus produced exhibits a healthy glow and girlish beauty obtainable in no other way we know of. This wax, which you can get at your druggist's, is applied at night in the same way you use cold cream, and washed off next morning.

An Innovation in Oil Heaters

The Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater, with its drums enameled in turquoise, is an ornament to any room, whether in the country or city home.

No home is quite complete without a Perfection Oil Heater. It is a necessity in the fall and spring, when it is too warm to start the regular heating apparatus, and too cool to be without heat. In the midst of winter it is often convenient as an auxiliary heater, as there are always some cold corners in a house.

The enameled heater always presents a nice appearance, as the enamel will not tarnish or burn off. It is not an "enamel paint," but it is the same as the enamel of your cooking utensils.

The Perfection is the most reliable and convenient portable heating device you can find. An automatically-locking flame spreader prevents turning the wick high enough to smoke.

FAMILY REUNITED AFTER 24 YEARS

VIROQUA, Wis., Nov. 18.—An interesting fact in connection with the recent family reunion of the Rev. G. W. Nuzum family is that all the members of the family have never been home at the same time but twice. The first time was twenty-four years ago last August, when one of the daughters was married. The second time was on Sunday, Nov. 5. On this date the father and mother and ten children were all home, but two sons did not see each other, as one was obliged to depart in the morning and one did not arrive until evening. The sons and daughters are scattered all over the United States, some living in the far east and some in the extreme western states. Several of the sons and sons-in-law have followed the example of Rev. G. W. Nuzum and have preached their life work.

J. Henry Bennett had business in La Crosse. Miss Hazeline of Madison is visiting the Viroqua library this week. While trying to oil a corn shredder, Will Thomas of Ontario vicinity lost three fingers.

The Third Regiment band will give a concert at Soldiers Grove on November 30.

Twelve cars of livestock were shipped from Westby and twelve from Cashton last week.

Village Marshal T. N. Sime of La Farge has a smart old biddy.

The other day she laid a very large egg which was found to contain another egg of regular size and substance. Both had perfectly formed yolks.

Chas. Chase of La Farge had business here. Wm. McMullin has gone to Lake Odessa, Mich., to visit an uncle who recently celebrated his hundredth birthday. The old gentleman is in excellent health and retains his mental faculties. During the summer he spends most of his time fishing in a river near his home, and is able to make some large catches. He formerly lived here.

OFFICE HOLDERS OF SOUTH BREAK

Federal Machine Men Are Eager to Get on Bandwagon of Likely Candidate

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Information reaching the progressive republican campaign headquarters to the effect that the break in the ranks of the federal office holders in the south is far more serious than is generally supposed.

For many weeks, there has been signs that the southern republicans have been fearful that the nomination of President Taft will be a serious menace to their continued receipt of bi-monthly checks from the United States treasury. In several of the southern states federal office holders and their friends have conveyed to the progressives in Washington the information that they were prepared to desert the administration in the hope of centering their forces on a candidate who stood some chance of being elected after getting the nomination.

This feeling of uncertainty among the republicans of the south was accentuated by President Taft's speech in Chicago, in which he bluntly expressed fears of defeat in 1912. Immediately following that speech southern republicans began writing to the progressive headquarters suggesting the best methods to be followed in breaking the control of Postmaster General Hitchcock and sending La Follette delegations to the republican national convention.

The prediction is now made that the administration will find it impossible to send a solid Taft delegation from the south to the next convention. The feeling against Taft in North Carolina is known to be extremely bitter, and prominent republicans there are openly working in behalf of Senator La Follette. Tennessee is another southern state where the Taft organization is losing ground every day, and it is certain that a La Follette delegation will go to the national convention from that state, although it is admitted that there will be a contesting Taft delegation and that it will rest with the committee on credentials to decide, which delegation shall be seated.

One of the most surprising features of the anti-administration feeling among republicans in the south is the strength of the progressive movement in Texas. Heretofore Cecil Lyon, the recognized distributor of federal patronage in the Lone Star state, has been in undisputed control of the situation in that state. Now, however, the progressive movement is becoming so strong that the organizers make the prediction that they will send forty La Follette delegates to the national convention and that if they are unseated it will be due to Lyon's influence with the administration and the committee on credentials rather than to the merits of the case which he will present in behalf of the delegation which he will take to the convention, irrespective of what the progressives are able to accomplish in the selection and instruction of delegates.

The south is affording the progressive campaign committee more encouragement than any other section of the country. The federal office holders are determined to have a winning candidate and the scores of letters being received in Washington daily indicate that Mr. Taft is not regarded as the man on whom the southerners wish to pin their future in federal offices.

LIGHTS UP DARK PLACES

New Illuminating Pistol Has Advantages Over Searchlight for Night Attacks.

During the recent extended maneuvers of the German army there were many night attacks, in which use was made of the newly introduced illuminating pistols.

According to the new regulations, these are to be employed wherever the configuration of the land makes their use preferable to that of the ordinary searchlight. The machinery necessary for the use of the latter device is very inconvenient, and especially in rolling and otherwise difficult country, where the main maneuver takes place, it cannot be used to advantage. The illuminating pistols have not this disadvantage, as they are easily transported.

Further, the searchlight is useless in valleys and deep-lying plains, as their rays shoot over these and leave them apparently in still deeper shadow. For this reason, such valleys serve as excellent covers at night against the searchlights. The illuminating pistols have done away with this advantage of shelter, as the cartridges which they throw light up the deepest and darkest gullies.

There are two different sorts of cartridges, producing respectively white and red light. The white ones serve for signaling purposes between widely separated commands or divisions, even where the distance between them is several kilometers. The illuminating cartridges develop a light that makes everything within 200 meters (650 feet) visible, and lasts eight to ten seconds.—Scientific American.

FAMOUS BANKER ACCUSES TAFT

Jacob Schiff Makes Charge Against Russia in Behalf of the Jews

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Astonishing charges against the Russian government were made by Mr. Jacob H. Schiff, at a conference of prominent Jews with Senators Root and O'Gorman called to urge the senators to vote for the resolution immediately to abrogate the treaty with Russia, signed in 1832, because that country bars American citizens of Jewish birth.

Directly connected with Schiff's charges was an accusation against Ambassador William W. Rockhill and John Hays Hammond, personal representatives of President Taft at the coronation of King George and Queen Mary. Indirectly Schiff included Taft, but absolved him from all blame.

He declared President Taft had told numerous delegations, in perfect good faith that efforts were being made to obtain a change of attitude toward our citizens from Russia, adding that Ambassador Rockhill was exerting all his influences in that direction.

"Though the president acted in good faith," continued the famous banker, "Rockhill as declaring in St. Petersburg that he did not consider the matter of much importance, that he was trying to get business for American manufacturers, and that he did not intend to jeopardize their interests."

"About a year and a half ago, Mr. Willenkin, the accredited financial agent of the Russian government, called on me and asked about getting financial footing in this country. I told him he could not do so. Later he came to me and told me he had formed a syndicate of American manufacturers for exporting their goods to Russia and for the construction of American goods, under American management in Russia."

"He told me that certain points were yet to be carried out, and I was informed that they would be carried out by John Hays Hammond, who is a mining man and not a manufacturer."

"Why Hammond?" I asked. "Because of the influences he has on President Taft," I was told.

"Mr. Hammond went to Russia. Upon his return he said the czar of Russia was the most successful ruler Russia ever had."

THE MODERN HEAD DRESS

Causes Baldness—We Cannot Change the Head Dress, but We Can Prevent Baldness

Up to the time we began to civilize him a bald headed Indian was a thing unknown. Wearing nothing on his head except the covering furnished by nature and being a stranger to the use of a hair brush, especially the public one, the scalp and hair had plenty of ventilation, much sunlight and, hence, a condition favorable to a luxuriant growth of hair existed at all times.

It was the adoption of air and light excluding head gears and artificial head decorations generally, together with the occasional use of a community hair brush, which gave the dandruff germ its opportunity. Since this parasite has multiplied to an alarming degree until now there is hardly a person who is not troubled more or less with dandruff and falling hair.

Many, to be sure, have passed the worrying stage. Having become chronically bald they realize that nothing is capable of producing natural hair for them. Let these be a warning to all who are experiencing the significant annoyance of dandruff and falling hair.

Dandruff, which is due to a germ, and falling hair can both be overcome by the regular use of Newbro's Herpicide.

This wonderful scalp remedy kills the vicious germ which causes dandruff, cleanses the scalp and stops the hair from coming out. The destruction of the germ permits the hair to grow naturally and luxuriantly as nature intends.

Herpicide makes the hair bright, snappy, light and fluffy. One dollar size bottles guaranteed. For sale at all drug stores. Applications obtained at the better barber shops and hair dressing parlors.

Send 10 cents stamps or silver for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich. Hoeschler Bros., special agents.

YOEMEN INITIATE MANY CANDIDATES

The Brotherhood of American Yeomen held their regular meeting last Tuesday evening, and a large class of new members was initiated. Another large number of applications were presented.

A short program followed the class adoption. Following is the program which was rendered: Piano duet, by Miss Elizabeth M. Drake and Miss Jessie Monti; vocal solo, by Mr. Odman Rintz; piano solo, by Miss Elizabeth Drake; vocal solo, by Miss Dorothy Ledegar. Each one on the program was encouraged several times, to which they all responded.

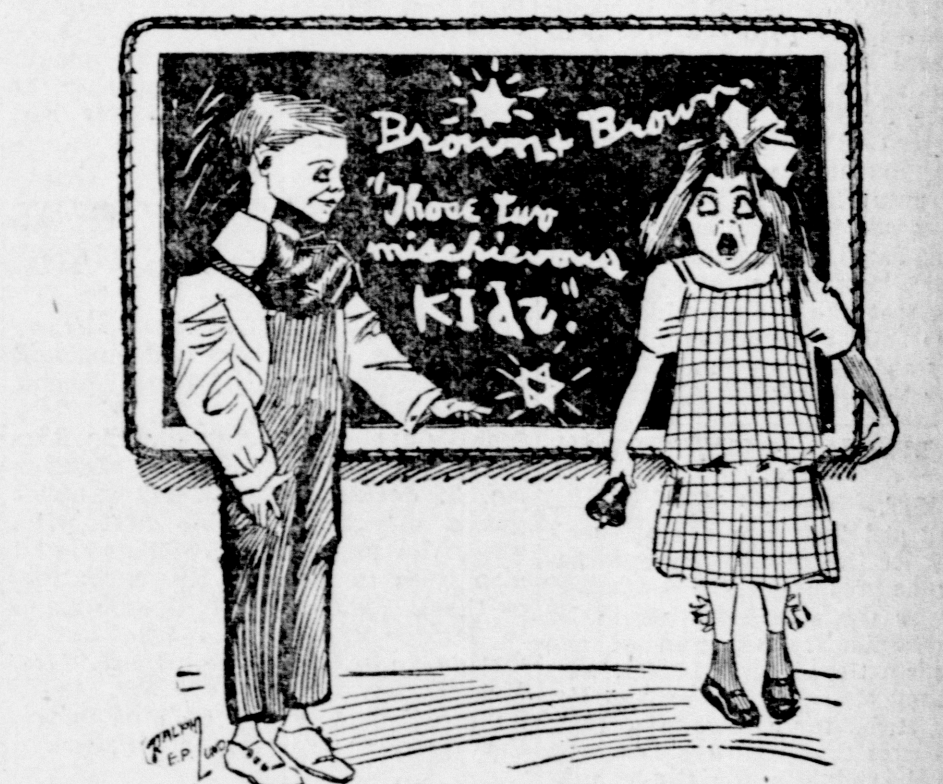

Following the program refreshments were served, after which dancing was indulged in until 1:00 o'clock a. m. The music was furnished by the complete Yeoman orchestra. The hall was packed to its utmost by members and friends.

The next regular meeting of the Rowena Circle, Brotherhood of American Yeomen, will be held in Linker hall next Tuesday afternoon. Progressive clench will be played, after which refreshments will be served. The committee of the bazaar will give their full report at this time.

Substitute for the Potato.

The scarcity of the Irish potato in the United States calls attention to its Asiatic substitute, the dasheen. For all practical purposes, the dasheen, which is seldom larger than a hen's egg, though more prolific than the potato, may be regarded as a species of Irish potato. For ages this tuber in various forms has been cultivated in Japan and China. Planted in the spring, it is gathered six months later and flourishes best in lands like those of our southern states upon the gulf. The United States government has been conducting experiments in South Carolina, with the new tuber, and our agents report that it yields from twelve to fifteen tons to the acre, while its edible protein averages 85 per cent. of the whole root, as against the 80 per cent. of the potato. It is not improbable that the next few years will see the cultivation of the new tuber in this country to a large extent, especially throughout the south.

I Am Willing To Prove I Can Cure You

To That End I Am Giving Away $10,000 Worth of Medicine

In order to show beyond all doubt that I am in possession of a medicine that will cure kidney trouble, bladder trouble or rheumatism, I will this year give away ten thousand dollars' worth of this medicine, and anyone suffering from these diseases can get a box of it absolutely free. All that is necessary is to send me your address.

I don't mean that you are to use a part of it or all of it and pay me if cured. I mean that I will send you a box of this medicine absolutely free of charge, a gift from me to the Uric Acid sufferers of the world, so I can show them where and how they may be cured. I will not expect payment for this free medicine, nor would I accept it now or later if you sent it. It is free in the real meaning of the word.

For twenty-five years—a quarter of a century—I have been trying to convince the public that I have something genuine, something better than others have for the cure of stubborn, chronic rheumatism, for torturing kidney backache, for annoying calls to urinate. But it is hard to convince people—they try a few things unsuccessfully and give up all hope and refuse to listen to anyone thereafter. Happily, I am in a position now to demonstrate to sufferers at my own expense that I have a medicine that cures these diseases. I don't ask them to spend any money to find out; I don't ask them to believe me, nor even to take the word of reliable people, but all I ask is that they allow me to send them the medicine at my own cost. That is surely fair.

To this end I have set aside ten thousand dollars, which will be used to compound my medicine. Much of it is ready now to be sent out, all of it fresh and standard. There will be enough for all sufferers, though there be thousands of them. And anyone who needs it can get some of it free. But in order that this medicine is intended, I send you a box of it, some of your leading symptoms. If you have any of the symptoms in the list printed here, you need my medicine and if you will write me I will gladly send you a box of it free with full directions for your use. Look the symptoms over, see which symptoms you have, then write me about as follows: "Dear Dr., I have the following symptoms:—here put down the numbers, give your age, full address, and send it to me. My address is Dr. T. Frank Lynott, 2123 Occidental Building, Chicago, Ill."

The ten thousand dollars I am spending for the compounding of my medicine is only a part of the money I am devoting to this cause, for the package of medicine I send you will be fully prepaid at my expense. From any standpoint you view it, YOU incur no expense or obligation. Just tell others who you know are suffering who sent you the medicine that cured you.

I am promising to give away ten thousand dollars worth of medicine, and I will do that; I am promising to send any sufferer who writes me a box of this medicine and full directions free of charge, and I will do that. I can say further that this medicine has been vouchered for according to the law as complying in every detail with all requirements. It will who is giving away $10,000 worth of medicine stop rheumatism, it will stop pain and backache, it will stop too frequent desire to urinate; it will heal, soothe and strengthen. You will be better in every way for having taken it. There is not an ingredient that can harm you, not one but will benefit. All that I ask is that you use it yourself so that you may be personally convinced.

Owing to the large number of requests I have had ten thousand more copies of my medical book printed. This book is one of up to date and contains complete descriptions of symptoms, causes, effects and cures of kidney, bladder and rheumatic diseases. All who write for the free medicine will be sent a copy of this grand illustrated medical book—the largest ever written on these diseases for free and general distribution.

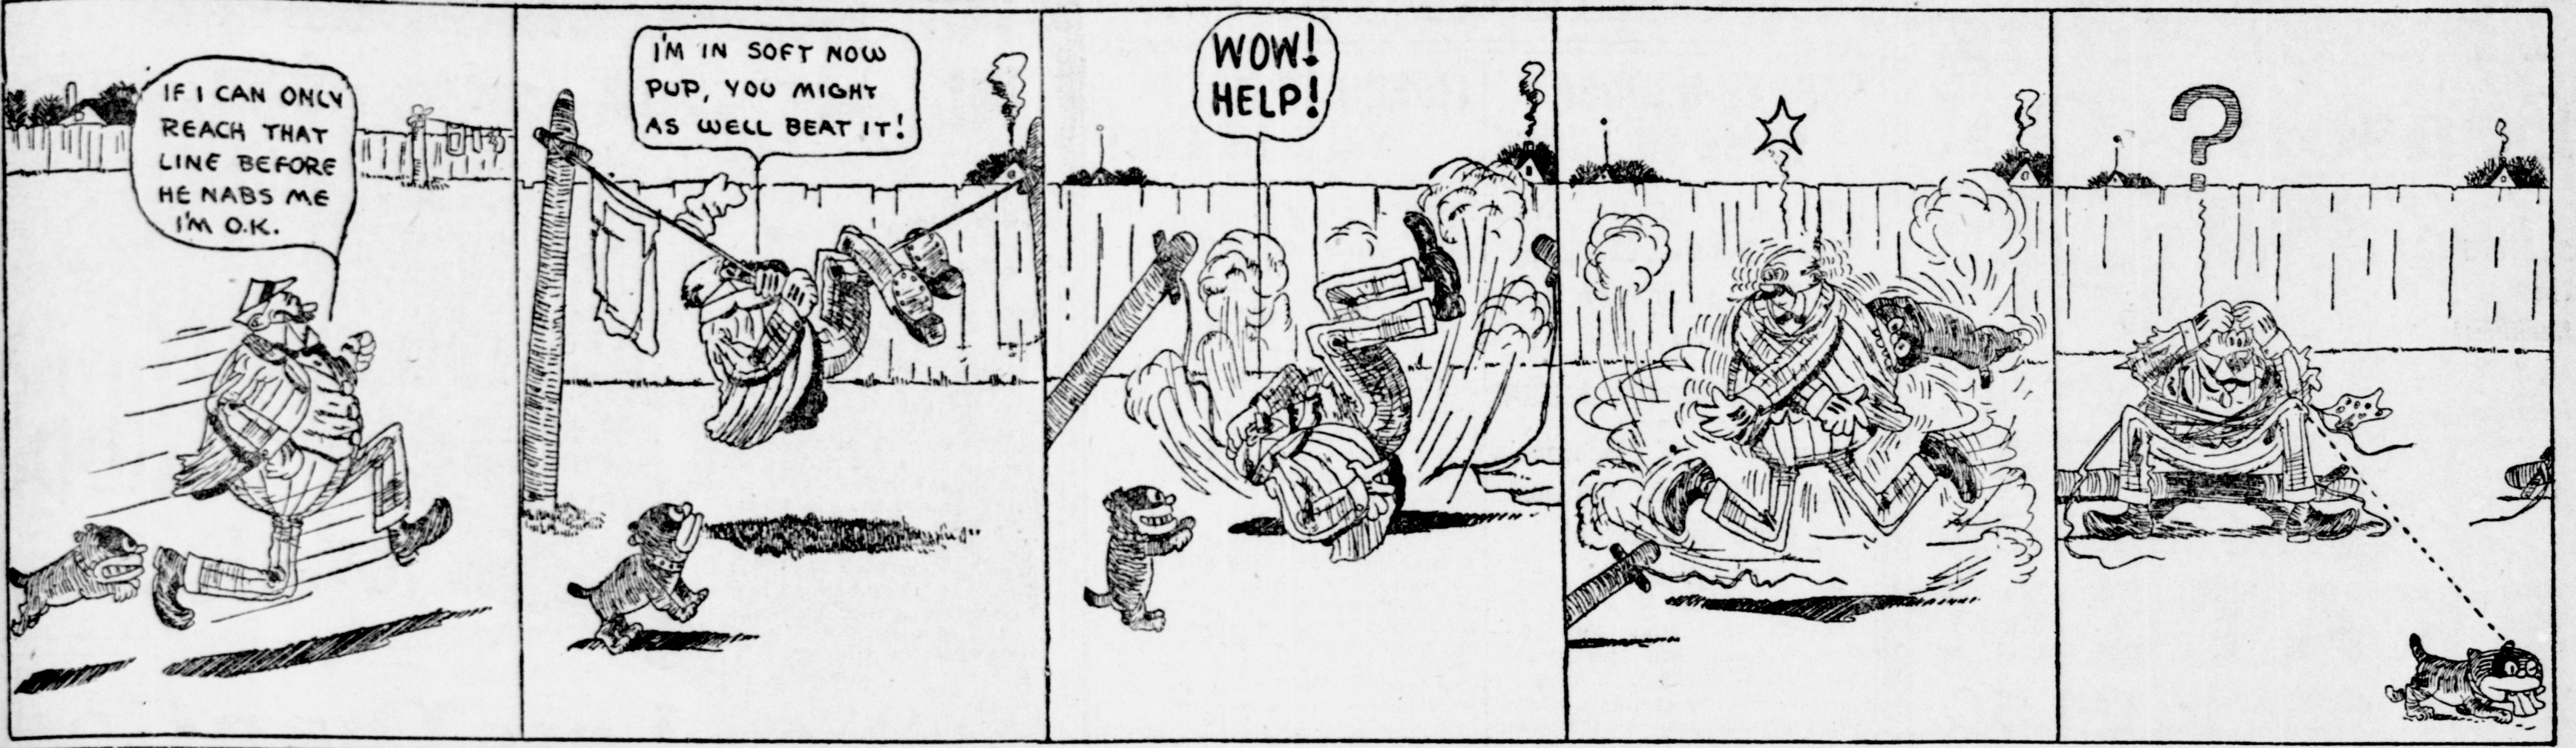

If you need medicine such as I have, if you are anxious to be cured and don't want to spend any money LOOKING for cures, write me. Read the symptoms over and let me hear from you today.

These Are the Symptoms:

- 1—Pain in the back.
- 2—Too frequent desire to urinate.
- 3—Burning or obstruction of urination.
- 4—Pain or soreness in the bladder.
- 5—Prostatic trouble.
- 6—Gas or pain in the stomach.

Hoge will be arraigned Monday morning for preliminary hearings, when an examination as to his sanity will be made.

Believed Doctors Poisoners.

An extraordinary story of popular ignorance is reported from Apricena, a small town in the south of Italy. A tradesman was found to be suffering from gastric enteritis, and his doctor prescribed a mixture containing a proportion of morphia. The tradesman and his wife, however, decided to test the medicine by giving some of it to the cat. Of course, the mixture, while innocuous to an adult male, was fatal to the cat, and the report was at once spread that all the doctors in consequence of the increase in the population of Italy, had received orders from the government to introduce poisons into their prescriptions, in order that the poorer people might be got rid of. It was only with difficulty that the townspeople were calmed, and, in spite of all the official explanations, it seems evident that the doctors will be avoided by the poorer classes for some time to come.

Useless.

It is useless to try to get women to believe there can be anything really bad about a man who is willing to load his wife down with jewelry.

GOPHER-BADGER GAME ON TODAY

Big Battle of the West Takes Place at Madison; Williams Kicks on U. of W. Protest

HOME COMING FOR ALUMNI

Thousands of Wisconsin Grads Flock to Madison for Annual Event and Contest

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 18.—Coach Williams with his Gopher squad left here at 9 a. m. today for Madison, where Minnesota will clash with the Badger team for the conference championship this afternoon.

Before leaving the Gopher coach reiterated his belief that Minnesota had not been accorded courteous treatment by Wisconsin in the latter's seventh hour protest of Captain Pickering.

"Wisconsin has not behaved in the most sportsmanlike manner possible, but, nevertheless, the Gopher players are determined to win and I am confident we will do so," said Williams.

After a protracted silence Dr. Williams last night issued a long statement in the eligibility controversy between the two teams and reviewed in detail the charges forwarded to Wisconsin protesting the eligibility of several Badger players. Included was Capt. Busher of the Wisconsin team, whom Coach Williams declared he had been informed played professional baseball with a professional city league team in 1910.

In explaining the withdrawal of Captain Pickering from today's game based on Wisconsin's charges, Dr. Williams explained that Director Ehler of Wisconsin wrote Professor Page October 30, 1910, saying he had been informed Pickering was ineligible; that Minnesota investigated the story, became satisfied it was untrue and had every reason to believe the case was closed as Wisconsin made no appeal until the eleventh hour protest was received from Madison two days ago.

Concluding the Gopher coach made the following blunt statement:

"It is impossible to make anyone in Minnesota believe that the charges against Pickering were brought at this late hour for any other purpose or intent than to cripple the team and help Wisconsin win the game. It is this unfair and unsportsmanlike attitude of the Wisconsin authorities

TIGERS TO MEET YALE IN EAST

Princeton Confident of Victory, Although Odds Favor the Yale Team; May Decide Title

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 18.—The Tiger came roaring forth from his jungle lair today and met the bull dog on Yale field.

New Haven was packed with visitors for the classic annual battle of the animals.

Betting favored Yale's football squad by six to five, though the loyal followers of Princeton were not at all averse to wagering their money in goodly sums on the chances of old Nassau. Betting was livelier than for many years for Yale men were confident of victory and Princeton men believed the Tigers' chance better than for several seasons.

Victory in today's contest meant that either Yale or Harvard undoubtedly would be the "Big Four" champions of 1911, and two more determined teams never met on the gridiron. Princeton has not beaten Yale since the memorable day back in 1903, when the great De Witt tore great holes in the Blue line. Princeton had another De Witt today and the "hunch players" got down strong on the tip.

Two teams more physically fit never met on the gridiron than the squads representing Yale and Princeton in today's contest. Even the famous Yale "strategy board" had been compelled to admit in advance the blue men were fit as fiddies, while the Tiger coaches even boasted of the physical prowess of their charges.

THREE BARTOS TO FEATURE BILL

Majestic Has Splendid Offering for First Half Show which Starts Sunday

The feature act of the Majestic show which opens Sunday afternoon will be the sensational strongman act of the Three Bartos. These premier athletes are exponents of the highest type of physical culture, and their development warrants their assumption of the title of "modern Hercules." The act is fresh from an engagement at the American Music hall in Chicago, and comes with good notices.

The act of Brown and Brown, called "The Kid with the big Voice," presents two young people on a singing, talking and comedy act that is clever and funny. This act is also well recommended.

"The great Harry Marvelle" presents a strikingly beautiful contortion and acrobatic act. He performs feats which are entirely original with himself, and his repertoire consists of thirty-six different tricks.

"The Conjuror and the Bellboy," as the act of Nelusco and Levine is termed, is a comedy sketch with a bright clever plot and swift action, introducing up-to-date sleight of hand work by one member of the team.

Lyndon and Dorman are comedians presenting an act recently imported from the English music halls. The act has made an instantaneous hit wherever it has been presented in this country since its arrival.

that Minnesota resents and condemns.

Following is the Gopher probable lineup:

Left end, McEwan; left tackle, Robinson; left guard, Smith; center, Morrell; right guard, Powers; right tackle, Frank; right end, Wallender; quarterback, Johnson; left halfback, Rosenwald; right halfback, Stevens; fullback, Capron.

Madison is today crowded with thousands of graduates who have returned for the annual home coming. They will occupy a stand which has been reserved for them and a smoker will be held following the game.

WAUKON, IOWA.

The teachers of the public school visited the La Crosse schools Thursday and Friday of this week. They enjoyed the visit very much.

A little son came to the John Barthell home last Monday morning. The father was killed last May in the motor car accident on the way to the mines.

Mrs. Wm. Stafford, a widow, who had just bought a home in Waukon so as to send her two little girls, Iva and Vera, to the public school, died quite suddenly Monday evening of erysipelas.

The Pythian Sisters had a "spread" after their regular meeting Tuesday evening in honor of two visiting sisters, Mrs. A. S. Bowen and Mrs. Mort Henderson.

Clint Kilpatrick, wife and baby came from Chapin, Iowa, to visit relatives.

Grandpa and Grandma Wittlinger received word that an 8½ baby girl had come to live with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Duffy at Portland, Ore.

Agent Intlekofer and bride are home from their trip to the Pacific coast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Campbell lost their 13-year-old daughter last week
